BlueLinx Joins Southern Cypress Manufacturers Association

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3, 2019 – The Southern Cypress Manufacturers Association (SCMA) is pleased to welcome its newest member, BlueLinx Corporation.

Based in Marietta, Georgia, BlueLinx is one of the largest distributors of building products in the U.S., servicing 52 markets spanning the country. Twelve of its locations across the Southeast stock a variety of cypress products, including air- and kiln-dried lumber, decking, dimension lumber, moulding and millwork, paneling, rough and surfaced boards, siding, timbers, and specialty products, as well as pecky cypress.

“BlueLinx is proud to join the Southern Cypress Manufacturers Association,” said Keilen Hyatt, product manager at BlueLinx’s Lakeland, Florida, location. “The association is the voice of the cypress industry, representing the best interests of all cypress producers, manufacturers, wholesalers, and distributors. Our membership provides an excellent networking opportunity and, more importantly, it enables BlueLinx to be engaged in the association’s promotional and educational initiatives.”
